

shall only be granted to sell in quantities not less than five gallons and not to be drunk upon the premises. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable at the discretion of the court."

Senator Travis offers the following substitute for the amendment offered by Senator London to section 6:

"Amend by adding to section 6 the following: That no person manufacturing wine from grapes or berries purchased from others shall sell the same except in quantities not less than five gallons, or in sealed crates containing not less than twelve commercial quart bottles. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable at the discretion of the court."

Senator London moves to amend:

"Amend section 3 by adding thereto the following: That the place where delivery of any spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented or other intoxicating liquors is made in the State of North Carolina shall be construed and held to be the place of the sale thereof, and any station or other place within the State to which any person, company, firm or corporation shall ship or convey any spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented or other intoxicating liquors, for the purpose of delivery or carrying the sale to a purchaser, shall be construed to be the place of sale: Provided, this section shall not be construed to prevent the delivery of any spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented or other intoxicating liquors to druggists in sufficient quantities for medical purposes only, or to legally organized dispensaries, or to licensed dealers, or to persons residing in territory in which the sale and manufacture of liquors is not prohibited by law or by the operations of this act."
